WAL-MART STORES, INC., et al.	:	NO. 3127

ORDER

AND NOW, upon consideration of Plaintiff's Motion for Class Certification (the "Motion"), the Memorandum of Law in support thereof, the Certification of Judith L. Spanier dated June 7, 2004 and all exhibits and Deposition Testimony Submitted in Support of Plaintiff's Motion and Defendants' response thereto,

IT IS, this 27th day of December, 2005, HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion is GRANTED. This action shall be maintained as a class action in accordance with Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1701 et seq. pursuant to the following findings of fact:

1. The "Class," defined as all current and former hourly employees of Wal-Mart in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from March 19, 1998 to the present, is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;

2. There are questions of law and/or fact common to the Class.

3. The claims of Plaintiff Michelle Braun are typical of the claims of the Class.

4. Plaintiff and her counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class.

5. A class action is a fair and efficient method of adjudicating this controversy for the following reasons:

- a) The common questions of law or fact predominate over any question affecting only individual members of the Class;
- b) There are no unmanageable difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of the action as a class action;
- c) The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the Class would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would confront the defendant with incompatible standards of conduct;
- d) Adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests;
- e) This Court is an appropriate forum for the litigation of the claims of the Class;
- f) In view of the complexities of the issues and the expenses of litigation, the separate claims of individual Class members are not sufficient in amount to support separate actions; and
- g) The amount which may be recovered by individual Class members will not be small in relation to the expenses and effort of administrating the class action.

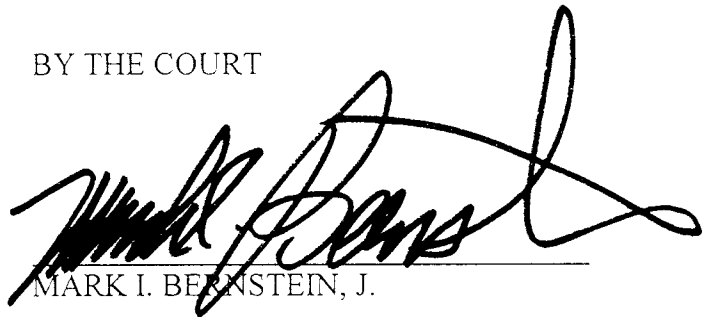

It is further

ORDERED, that Plaintiff Michelle Braun is certified as Class representative; and it is further

ORDERED, that the firms of Donovan Searles, LLC, Abbey Gardy, LLP, Bader
& Associates, LLC, and Franklin D. Azar & Associates, P.C., shall serve as Class
Counsel; and it is further

ORDERED, that Plaintiff shall submit a proposed form of notice to the Class within thirty (30) days of entry of this Order.
