vs. : :
WAL-MART STORES, INC., ET AL. : NO. 3757

ORDER

Prejudgment interest is the legal right of the prevailing party in a contract or unjust enrichment action.¹ Plaintiffs are not requesting interest on any claims subject to statutory liquidated damages which have been previously ordered. Plaintiff's claim interest only on the sums awarded for the time period March 19, 1998 through December 31, 2001. By statute, pre-judgment interest is calculated at 6 percent per year.² Prejudgment interest is calculated to the time of judgment.

Accordingly, this 14th day of November, 2007, prejudgment interest is awarded in the amount of $10,163,863.00.
